THE CLARENDON COLLECTION

An idyllic escape for all those who seek it

In an efficient space saving designed home, sometimes finding a place of solitude can be difficult. Not so with the Capri. By spreading all four bedrooms over all four corners of the home, common walls in between have been replaced by buffered areas such as ensuites or laundries. Add in a secluded yet large living room and finding your own idyllic escape from the rest of the home is a breeze. The combined open-space family, kitchen and meals area spills out onto an alfresco that altogether becomes the relaxed entertaining destination that balances the needs of the home.
